Jersey Select Adds More Top Local Talent To The Roster
Haddonfield, NJ—March 25, 2010

The number of star athletes committed to the Jersey Select team for the 2010 season continues to soar with the latest recruits including Jess Babice, Gianna Garfall and Lauren Walker.

Jess Babice, Rowan University's star forward, joins the team following an outstanding season in which she scored 22 goals for the Owls. Babice was chosen the New Jersey Athletic Conference (NJAC) and Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) Metro Offensive Player of the Year and was a member of the NJAC All-Conference and ECAC Metro All-Star first teams.

With Babice strengthening the offense, Gianna Garfall and Lauren Walker will help keep things tight at the back. Garfall, a freshman defender from Loyola, was part of the team that rated one of the best teams in the program's history, concluding the season unbeaten in their conference. Lauren Walker, keeper, is a graduate of Swarthmore College where she still holds the school record in career shut-outs and is currently the assistant coach to her alma mater team.

"I continue to be impressed and excited with the level of talent we are bringing into the program. I am looking forward to an exciting season," said Coach Erwin Van Bennekom.

Select competes in the East Coast Conference of the Women's Premier Soccer League (WPSL), providing the highest level of women's amateur soccer in the United States, and is a member of The New Jersey Soccer Group, a management company for a family of soccer-based organizations offering a full-range of services in New Jersey.
